DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 10-12 and 15-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fitzgerald.

With respect to claim 10, figures 13A and 13B of the reference show SiGe layer 1304 formed on a base layer (1306, 1308), and silicon layer 1302, 1314 formed on the SiGe layer. The silicon layer is selectively removed in first regions 1314. Implanting dopant and gate formation would have been obvious to form the desired transistors, as shown in for example figures 14A and 14B. With respect to claim 11, CMOS transistors would have been obvious to implement CMOS circuitry. With respect to claim 12, substantially all of layer 1314 is removed. With respect to claims 17-18, the thicknesses recited would have been obvious for gate oxidation (column 9, line 67) in order to allow for optimal gate control of the channel. With respect to claim 19, strained Si would have been obvious because the lattice mismatch to SiGe would cause strain. With respect to claim 20, figure 1 shows SiGe grading, where 1308 would be read as the SiGe layer of claim 10. (A portion of silicon layer 1306 is removed in the oxidation step as shown in figure 13D.)

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 13-14 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
